Boca West Children's Foundation Announces Star-Powered Charity Luncheon Featuring TV Personality Hunter Fieri

Boca West Children's Foundation (BWCF) will host a charity luncheon on Friday, April 17, 2026, at the Boca West Country Club, headlined by TV personality Hunter Fieri. The event will combine culinary entertainment, friendly competition, boutique shopping, and community impact to benefit more than 30 local children's charities supported by the Foundation.

The luncheon will feature a lively culinary competition led by Fieri, who will guide local community and business leaders as they work in teams of two to prepare their own signature dishes. Distinguished judges Yaniv Cohen, "The Spice Detective," and bestselling author and business leader Melissa Butterworth, will evaluate each creation, adding spirited commentary and ultimately selecting the winning dish.

An impressive lineup of local leaders will step into the kitchen:

- Adam Hasner, President of FAU
- Jillian Hasner, First Lady of FAU
- Tracy Caruso, Commissioner & Trustee
- Mike Caruso, Clerk & Comptroller of PBC
- Sam Kerrigan, CBS 12 Morning Anchor
- Matt Lincoln, CBS 12 Morning Anchor
- Zoe Lanham, VP of The Addison
- Alex Price, McKinnon Wright Wealth
- Michelle Stallone, Founder of Pinkball
- Evan Darnell, Red Meat Lovers Club

“This luncheon is a celebration of community, creativity and compassion,” said Pamela Weinroth, Executive Director of Boca West Children’s Foundation. “With the incredible talent of Hunter Fieri and the passion of our local leaders, we’re looking forward to an unforgettable afternoon supporting the children and families who need us most.”

Chaired by Michelle Gluckow and Lori Lesser, the event supports BWCF’s 30 vetted nonprofit partners addressing critical needs such as hunger, abuse, neglect and homelessness across Palm Beach County.

The luncheon begins with boutique shopping and a silent auction at 10 a.m., followed by the main program from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tickets are priced at $250 for General Admission and $350 for VIP seating.
